Afghanistan

Afghanistan has a rich cultural heritage covering more than 5,000 years.

Afghanistan's ethnically and linguistically mixed population reflects its location astride historic trade and invasion routes leading from Central Asia into South and Southwest Asia.

The food of Afghanistan is natural and healthy! Intricate seasonings, mild spices and flavors predominate.

Ariana Afghan Kebab offers a full array of succulent Afghan dishes for your dining pleasure. Enjoy the mysteries of Afghanistan's delicately delicious Dumplings topped with yogurt and mild ground meat sauce.

Savor our Afghan-Spiced Kebabs, marinated with grated seasonings, broiled with onions and peppers, served with brown rice and salad. Choose from a large Vegetarian selection, all cooked with fresh spices and herbs, served with brown Basmati Rice, salad and bread.

Don't forget to save room for dessert! Delight in a serving of Firnee, a silky pudding sprinkled with pistachios and almonds or a tender sweet slice of Beghalawa finished off with Happy Tea.

At Ariana Afghan Kebab, a family-owned restaurant since 1986, pleasant surprises await you.

ABOUT ASIA DOG

Asiadogs are hot dogs with Asian inspired toppings. Born from a love of NYC, we wanted to push the limits of one of its most popular street foods by adding our own personal touch with super-fresh ingredients.

Coming from mixed Asian backgrounds, we celebrate NYC's diversity by incorporating flavors found in China, Korea, Vietnam, Japan, and more.

We started in 2008 in the backyard of a friends bar with the basic principles of GOOD FOOD, GOOD FRIENDS, and GOOD FUN, and as we've grown to locations including the Brooklyn Flea, Central Park Summerstage, and our very first brick and mortar, we strive everyday to hold true to these fundamentals. So come check out one of our seven unique dogs... or our signature burger. We hope to see you soon!

Love, Mel and Steve

ABOUT AYURVEDA

- Ayurveda is the science of life, a 5,000-year-old traditional holistic system of well-being from India. 'ayur' means 'of life' and 'vedo' means 'knowledge'. Ayurveda is the knowledge of longevity which offers healing, rejuvenation and self-realization through balanced food, herbs, yoga, massage, aroma, and meditation.
 - Ayurveda teaches us to pay attention to how and what we eat, and to take responsibility for our health.
 - Ayurveda is very clear when it comes to food. Satvic (pure) food is needed to heal and maintain good health and must incorporate six tastes in every meal: sweet, sour, salty, bitter, astringent and pungent.
 - Modern medical science also recommends a vegetarian diet for good health and prevention of stress-related health problems.
- Ayurveda cafe can help you beat stress, increase energy and look great.

Spécialités de la Maison
AZUMA YA

BY RAY JACOBS

The best of the big starts, to my taste, are shabu-shabu (thin-sliced raw meat) and tonkatsu (deep-fried breaded pork). The former is sliced thin (about 1/16 inch) and served with pickled vegetables; the latter is breaded and deep-fried. Both are delicious. Sukiyaki, or vinegarter-cooked fish (the Japanese version of seviche), please me more than the cold tonkatsu. Made up of salmon, mackerel, crab, shrimp, and scallops, it is an accompaniment to the shabu-shabu. A side dish of shirataki (seaweed-wrapped, seitan-centered udon) makes for great attractions. Stabilo, remember?
